

ECOSOC Crisis 1.1

African Countries including Sudan and South Africa is undergoing an significant economic recession due to the failure of recognizing the importance of poverty reduction. United States of America on the other hand refuses to provide further financial aid, thereby causing a overall crisis across the Continent of Africa.