Assignment 2

Program Design:

Based on your country/institution's condition, please design a program for the purpose of Peace and Development Volunteerism. In this project, select one specific aspect from peace development and focus on cooperation between countries and institutions. The assignment requires a cooperative model between your country or institution and others. In this assignment, specific discussion about your strength and shortage should be given emphasis on because it will show your understanding about the condition of your country/institution in international cooperation. (700-1000 words)

The structure of the assignment should follow the sequence of:

1. Purpose
2. Reasons
3. Self-condition statement
4. Capability and requirements
5. Possible obstacles and suggestion for relevant solution.
